

PIER PAOLO DANIELE COMPETITION

Establishment of a competition linked to the Daniele Fund, a young pharmacist from Turin, a lover of the history of pharmacy, who died during the WW2, with all his dreams and projects. Participation is reserved for young researchers born not before 1987, who will be able to attend the congress by paying a reduced fee.

RULES OF PARTICIPATION

- Free theme, but strictly linked to the study absolutely unpublished of documents unknown, which gives the competitor the opportunity to demonstrate the ability to deal with research on original sources. Therefore, no theses, reports, or research already submitted or published can be accepted.

It is not allowed to submit essays e.g. relying on recently defended PhD theses, communications or journal publications.

- The paper, in English, will have to be submitted for a first evaluation to the Society of the History of Pharmacy of the competitor's country, which will send the selected papers to the country promoting the competition:

aisf@accademiaitalianastoriafarmacia.org
by March 31, 2022 in order to face the organizational and technical unknowns in time.

- Among the studies received, the Italian Academy of History of Pharmacy will select 20 papers.

- The 20 papers will then be submitted to the evaluation of an international scientific commission composed by the President of the International Society, the President of the International Academy and the President of the Italian Academy of History of Pharmacy to reduce the number of finalists to 10.

The commission will assign a score evaluating:
